

Student Health Benefits

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Our office, the Office of Student Health Benefits, partners with Foster Klima to provide you long-term disability insurance. This benefit protects you if you develop a condition that leads to a leave of absence or prevents you from completing your education.

You have access to a Foster Klima representative, designated to your program, who can help you learn more about the long-term disability benefit.

Additionally, your designated representative can educate you on converting your coverage to an individual policy after graduation. You can also contact them to help address questions about student loans and comprehensive financial planning.

We encourage you to protect your future and contact your Foster Klima representative today!
