

Hello!

Our office is unable to bill the base premium for your Spring 2023 Graduate Assistant Health Plan (GAHP) coverage to your student account.

All GAHP enrollees are required to pay the base premium each semester. Typically, the base premium is posted to the student account. If a student does not have a student account (this often applies to Post-Doctoral Fellows and Trainees), we are required to collect payment via credit card or check.

Please provide your GAHP base premium payment by March 13. Complete page two of the GAHP Enrollment Form (pdf) to provide payment information. Once completed, submit your form to the Office of Student Health Benefits.

To maintain enrollment in the GAHP for the spring semester, payment must be submitted by March 13, 2023. If payment is not submitted by the deadline, your coverage will be terminated effective January 31, 2023.

If you are also paying dependent premiums, you may give written authorization with your email submission to use the payment information on file for billing purposes.
